

Technical Talk on “The World Exposition Shanghai China 2010 – Energy System Planning”

The technical talk was held on 29th March 2006 successfully. Speaker is Professor Long Weiding of CDHAW, Tongji University, Shanghai, gave a brief account on the planning of Expo energy system planning for a perpetual architectural landmark to all attendants. He also discussed a new proposals on energy saving and management issues.

Some photos taken in the technical talk are shown as below:

